

SCRIPT-NC Webinar: Designing for One, Designing for All
October 29, 2019
Participant Contributions

We all use UDL principles when representing our schedule [see pie graph].

→ UDL is also included explicitly in ESSA. ←

Suggestions for UDL in teacher education:

- Allow students to pre-record presentations
- Submit assignments in multiple ways: posters, written, video, song, other creative ways
- Color code handouts
- Provide fidget toys see [link]
- Use sticky notes, highlighters, and reading glasses to highlight content
- “Flip the classroom” – see link

Suggestions for UDL in early childhood classrooms

- Visual supports to define routines
- Individual picture schedules AND classroom schedules
