Setting the Stage for Today's Training

CLASS CARE STATEMENTS

- Learning about this content can be emotionally draining for some and triggering for others
- Child trauma can be a difficult topic to think about for anyone, particularly if a student has or is experiencing their own traumas
- Highlight the importance of your students' psychological safety and their learning
- Encourage students to let you know if the course content is distressing or triggering to them – provide various avenues
- Work with you to develop a plan for navigating the course
- Be familiar with community resources if students need additional support outside of the class as needed

BREAKOUTS

- EDU 119: Intro to Early Childhood
  - EDU 131: Child, Family, and Community

SCRIPT-NC Website

<https://scriptnc.fpg.unc.edu>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the SCRIPT-NC website. At the top left is the logo "SCRIPT-NC" with the tagline "Supporting Change and Reform in Preservice Teaching in North Carolina". To the right of the logo is a search bar and a navigation menu with links for "HOME", "ABOUT US", and "RESOURCES". Below the navigation is a large banner image featuring a collage of photos: a young girl hugging a woman, a woman smiling with children, and two women in conversation. A semi-transparent dark bar across the bottom of the banner contains the text "Supporting Change and Reform in Preservice Teaching in North Carolina". Below the banner is a paragraph of text: "SCRIPT-NC is working with community college faculty in North Carolina to better prepare preservice early childhood educators to meet the diverse needs of children in their community." Underneath this text is a "LEARN MORE" button. The bottom section of the page is a dark grey area with four columns, each featuring an icon, a title, a short description, and a "LEARN MORE" button. The columns are: 1. "COURSE SPECIFIC RESOURCES" with a book icon, describing free high-quality resources for enhancing coursework and practica, focusing on inclusion. 2. "TOOLS FOR ENHANCING PROGRAM QUALITY" with a wrench and pencil icon, describing rubrics and matrices for enhancing early childhood Associate's degree programs. 3. "FACULTY WEBINARS" with a laptop icon, describing access to archived webinars and registration for upcoming ones. 4. "MONTHLY NEWSLETTER" with an envelope icon, describing access to current and archived "Natural Resources" newsletters.
